

Texoma Council of Governments

2011-2015 Texoma Needs Assessment

A Study of Unmet Needs for Low-Income
Texomans who Seek Self-Sufficiency

Appendix C.

4. APPENDIX C. KEY INFORMANT INTERVIEW CODES

The following is a list of the codes used to analyze the key informant interviews:

211, 911, Abigail's Arms, additional funding, Adult Protective Services, advanced directives, affordable housing, after-school program, age range, agency expansion, agency first community second, AIDS Resource Center, Alzheimer's Care, AmeriCorps, anti-funding, apathy, assisted living agencies, Atmos, attitude, awareness, blacks, Bonham, Boys and Girls Club, budgeting, bus route, case management, caseload, cash assistance program, cause of poverty, cause of unemployment, CDBG, changes in funding, changes in policy, changes in services, Channel 12, Child Care Assistance Program, Child Protective Services, childcare, childcare providers, Children's Advocacy Center, CHIP, Christian, city government, Clay County, client, client debt, client history, client intake, client participation, client responsibility, client survey, client terminations, communication, community center, community contribution, Community Needs Assessment, condition of poverty, Continuum of Care, Cooke County, co-pay program, cost-share program, counseling, county profile, Court Appointed Special Advocates, crime, criminal history, CSBG, customer service survey, Dallas, Delta County, Denison, dental care, Denton, desperation, differences between Grayson and Fannin Counties, differences between poor and rich, differences between rural and urban, differences in Cooke County, disabled, disadvantages of Head Start, discrimination, dispersed services, domestic violence, drivers, drugs, Early Childhood Intervention, earned income verification system, economic downturn, education, Elder Rights counselor, elderly, elected official, eligibility, emergency assistance, employment, encouragement, energy company, energy usage, event, event time, eviction, fair housing, family, Family Self-Sufficiency Program, family unification program, Fannin County, Fannin County Family Crisis Center, Fannin County residents, federal funding, financial costs, financial guidance, fixed income, flexibility of residence, foreclosure, Four Rivers, frequent service user, Gainesville, Gainesville Housing Authority, generational change, generational difference, generational poverty, Girls INC, Grandparents as Parents, Grayson County, Grayson County Crisis Center, Grayson County Pregnancy Care Center, Grayson County Shelter, Head Start, health, health insurance, Heaven's Helper, home buyer program, Home Hospice, home ownership class, homeless shelter, homelessness, homelessness prevention grant, Honey Grove, household income, household profiles, housing, Housing Authority, hunger, income, increase in capacity, increased awareness, independent mindset, information, job security, job training, lack of businesses, lack of documentation, lack of funding, lack of health, lack of jobs, lack of social services, lack of tracking clients, lack of transitional housing, lack of transportation, lack of urgency, Lamar County, landlords, layoffs, legal aid, Leonard, life skills, living within their means, low demand area, low income individual, mainstream program, McKinney, Medicaid, Medicaid policies, medical bills, medical powers of attorney, Medicare, mental health, MHMR, mom and pop shelter, Montague County, motivation, needs, Neighborhood Stabilization Program, new clients, news, newspaper, North Central Texas COG, North Texas Youth Connection, Northwest Texas Legal Aid, nurse aid, nutrition, obstacles to goal, old-fashioned, outreach, partner organization, permanent housing, person, person-race, person-gender, Peterbuilt Plant, pharmacy technician, place, planned services, Plano, population trends, positive attitude, poverty, poverty level, Pre-K, prescription drugs, private sector, program goals, program graduation, public assistance, public housing, public service announcement, racial, radio, recreation, Red River County, referrals, rehabilitation, relatives, Reliant, removal of clients from program, rent reasonableness, rent stock, retired, rural, rural attitude, rural homelessness, Salvation Army, school supplies, schools, second chances to clients, Section 8, Section 8 waitlist, self-defeating attitude, self-sufficiency, service provider, service provision, Sherman, Sherman Housing Authority, single moms, single parents, SNAP, Social Security, Spanish speakers, standard of living, stigma of government assistance, stimulus, subsidized rides, success story, Surrender House, suspicion, TANF, TAPS, target population, TCOG, TCOG Elder Rights, TCOG Section 8, TCOG Utilities Assistance, TCOG Weatherization, Texas Express, Texas Homeless Network, Texas Hotline, Texoma Homeless Coalition, Trailblazer Plant, transitional housing, transportation, Tuition Payment Program, TXU, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, underemployment, unemployment, United Way, US Department of Agriculture, US Department of Housing and Urban Development, utility bills, VA Clinic, Veteran Services, veterans, Veterans Affairs, violence, VISTO, Wichita County, Wise County, work ethic, Workforce Solutions Texoma, working parents, youth

